Prologue

In the year one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight from the BIRTH OF CHRIST
 from the meeting-point of heaven and earth
 when the WORD ETERNAL became MAN in time through the Immaculate Heart of the Virgin Mother, Mary — in the one hundredth anniversary of the apparitions at LOURDES to Bernadette
 in the fourth year of their arrival, the Heart of Mary having completed their training at O.L.A.,
 THE CLASS OF 1958
 beloved and loving daughters of the Immaculate Heart of the BLESSED MOTHER, desiring to inflame the world
 with the burning love and maternal goodness of Mary's Heart showered upon them,
 THE GRADUATES,
 having participated in
 THE CLASS-LIFE
 ever seeking the blessings of Our Lady's Heart,
 THE ACTIVITIES
 having strengthened their bonds
 of sisterly and filial affection,
 and departing into the life of the world
 having set
 "OMNIA PER COR MARIAE"
 as their goal.

A Worthy Dedication

To YOU who love Our Lady,

To YOU who have instilled that love into our minds and hearts,

To YOU who have inspired our very beings with precept and example,

TO YOU, DEAR FACULTY

we feel privileged to dedicate this our yearbook, the 1958 ANGELICAN.

The façade of Our Lady of the Angels chapel in Enfield, Conn. This is the heart of the religious life of the Felician Sisters where community prayers and religious exercises are held every day. It is the spiritual armory where each faculty member seeks the grace of her Eucharistic King to go forward with her work.

His Holiness
POPE PIUS XII

The Lourdes Pilgrimage

Encyclical Letter of Pius XII

"Today again We turn toward the famous sanctuary which is now preparing to receive the crowds of centenary pilgrims on the shores of the river Gave. If in the past century ardent public and private supplications have obtained there so many graces of healing and conversions from God through the intercession of Mary, We are firmly confident that in this jubilee year Our Lady will want to respond again with liberality to the expectations of her children. But We are especially convinced that she urges Us to recall the spiritual lessons of the apparitions and set them upon the path which she so clearly traced for us."

We wish to invite all Our sons to renew, in this jubilee year, their confident and generous piety toward her who, according to the words of St. Pius X, deigned to establish at Lourdes "the seat of her immense kindness" (Letter, July 12, 1914, Acta Apostolicae Sedis, VI, 1914, p. 376).

AT THE END — THE BEGINNING.

As GRADUATES, we stand poised at the crossroads of life — the end of carefree adolescence — the beginning of valiant womanhood — fortified with the life-principle of “ALL THROUGH THE HEART OF MARY” to assume the responsibilities of bearing the light of CHRIST to a world covered with the darkness of materialism.

We Shall Always Remember

And do we remember . . . Four years long ago . . . When our life as Angelites . . . First began to grow . . . Her spirit, Her traditions, now are ours to keep . . . They flowed into our hearts . . . And were imbedded deep . . . Now as we gather those moments, we say . . . Keep them, O Mary . . . Never let us stray . . . And we do remember . . .

Remember that September morning in the Marian Year of 1954 . . . The day our class first assembled . . . The uniform we first proudly wore . . . The joviality of initiation "Hazing Week" . . . The Red Day Mass . . . And all these strengthened by Annual Retreat . . . Remember the songs so new . . . Mozart's Operetta . . . Our first refrains of "Hep! Hep! Hep! Three cheers for O.L.A." . . . "Lovely Lady dressed in blue" . . . Oh, how we do remember . . .

Remember our sophomore days . . . How as "veterans" we returned . . . The classes, the clubs, the activities . . . The lessons we learned . . . Recall Arbor Day . . . The planting of our Red Hawthorne tree . . . The Christmas program, the annual play . . . The Felician Sister's centennial celebration . . . And how we departed for the summer vacation . . . Nourished and strengthened in our Angelite ideals . . . A class united under Mary . . . Yes, we do remember . . .

Remember our junior year . . . When we returned as upper classmen . . . And the memories so dear . . . The joys of Ring Day . . . Our "Weenie Roast" . . . "Lady of Fatima", the annual play . . . This year was highlighted by the selection of the standards of our class . . . The dedication of the new O.L.A. Motherhouse and Chapel . . . And the acceptance of eighteen members of our class . . . To the Third Order of Saint Francis . . . Our first step into the senior year was the reception of the daisy chain . . . Our Angelite ideals were entwined under Mary's Mantle . . . We do remember . . .

Yes, we do remember . . . This final years of ours . . . The senior year with its friendly links . . . And all its treasured hours . . . The solemnity of Red Day Mass . . . The joy of Planning initiation in fall . . . The love of Mary, our Patroness shown by the Our Lady of Lourdes Assembly . . . The presentation of "Pilate and the Cross" . . . But that isn't all . . . Soon we visited Washington, D.C. . . . Our Angelite days were soon culminated by Graduation and finally Class Night . . . We do remember . . .

These, the highlights of our high school days, are events significant to us all . . . But the memories of Her traditions, Her spirit, and our fellow Angelites is something no words can express . . . But that will always be held dear in our hearts . . . WE SHALL ALWAYS REMEMBER.

Classes

Fond memories will ever recall each prayerfully planned class day. Every minute of study is vitalized by the revelation of the LIFE that is Wisdom and Love Itself — GOD. In the knowledge of this LIFE, WISDOM and LOVE, the Angelite emerges radiantly conscious of her potentialities, purpose, and destiny as a child of God created unto His image and likeness, as a daughter of Holy Mother Church redeemed and sanctified by the Precious Blood of Christ unto salvation of other souls, as a member of society made responsible for the renewal of the face of the earth unto Christ — “ALL THROUGH THE HEART OF MARY.”

Activities

Ennoblement of spirit and relaxation of mind motivates the extra-curricular activities of the Angelite. Aware of the selfishness and misunderstanding too abundant in the world, she seeks to supplant it by sharing her God-given talents WITH others and by participating in the experiences and work OF others. Springing from this mutual sharing and participation is the UNITY of MINDS and HEARTS essential to the formation of MARY-LIKE sisterliness and to the spirit of that love which turns the very enjoyment of activities into the prayer of "ALL THROUGH THE HEART OF MARY."

Arbor Day Ceremony

The traditional planting of the class tree by the Sophomore Class took place on Arbor Day, April 25. This year's tree, a European linden, was the first planted on the new Academy grounds. A committee headed by Phyllis Quagliaroli arranged the activity. The program consisted of a song composed by Eleanor La Croix, a reading of Governor Ribicoff's Proclamation on Arbor Day by Diane Ingraham, a talk by Jean Kula on the origin of Arbor Day, and the actual planting of the tree.

Ring Day

Juniors receiving
Holy Communion

"... Ring Day is a beautiful tradition here at Our Lady of the Angels Academy. . . .

A Class ring is a bond of loyalty to your school. In the years ahead, you will prove your loyalty to Our Lady of the Angels Academy by being true to all that you have learned here. In wearing this ring, you become marked women — marked with that special training that only a Catholic Academy can give you.

There is, therefore, a deep symbolism to your class ring. It is more than just gold and jewel. It is a symbol of the good example that the world will now expect of you. . . ."

(From the address delivered by Rev. Page)

Margaret Wong, class president, leads the Juniors in the Processional and the Recessional of the Ring Day ceremony.

Class Night

Solemnity . . .

Grandeur . . . Farewell . . .

A symbol we pass on to you
A symbol of that which we have done and you must ever do.
A symbol of Academy life, and all its meaning too;
A symbol of our heritage, our traditions,
our memories tried and true.

Seniors pass the Daisy Chain of O.L.A. Heritage to the Juniors.

This symbol of honor we accept with pride;
This symbol of loyalty to ideals we shall never hide.
This symbol of truth which we must carry on life's way.
This symbol of our seniorship is our pledge to duty,
our love for O.L.A.
